Presents

“What Does It Mean to Be a Professional Early Childhood Educator?”

Dr. Stephanie Feeney

Monday, February 6, 2012

Olivet Baptist Preschool

1775 South Beretania St. Honolulu

12:00 noon – 2:00 pm

This workshop will address some ideas from Dr. Feeney's new book Professionalism in Early Childhood Education: Doing Our Best for Young Children. In it she will explore the questions: What is a profession? Is ECE a profession? What would early childhood educators need to know, do and be like to be considered exemplary professionals? What are the implications of these questions for directors of programs for young children?

Dr. Stephanie Feeney is Professor Emerita of Education at the University of Hawaii where she directed early childhood teacher education programs for many years. Since the mid 1980s Dr. Feeney has been involved in work on professional ethics for the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC).
